

spokes in a wheel

THE OAKLAND FILM OFFICE INTRODUCES the Oakland Film Center

Established in 2004, the Oakland Film Center houses 23 film production-related businesses under one roof—conveniently located at the foot of the Bay Bridge.

Sharing this 100,000-square-foot space creates a unique synergy within an already tight-knit Bay Area film production community—between art directors, prop makers, photographers and companies that provide film production gear.

To learn more visit
www.filmoakland.com/oaklandfilmcenter

SPOTLIGHT

ROBERT FUJIOKA FUJIOKA STUDIOS

With 22 years of experience, photographer Robert Fujioka creates award-winning images for top corporations. He produces projects across the globe and provides local grip services.

"The Film Center is a house full of like-minded people. Every company has its own focus, but we're all spokes in a wheel. We're a community."